

Weather Application

Wireframe documentation

Homepage

The weather application is a single page application where every things is display in the Home page one after the other.

1. First thing anyone will see in the Home page is, the user will be ask to input any city name of which they want to get weather details of it.
2. Along with the city name input, Get Weather button in provided in the Home page.

Weather Web Application

Enter a city name and get the real time weather of the particular city

City Name

Bangalore

Get weather

Based on User's city name input and clicking the Get Weather button
The weather application will fetch the city weather to an external to the home page itself. A sample view of Homepage showing results below.

The Crossed Section in above sample can be used for images or gifs of weather condition of the city to give user a good experience and clicking on it will go back to where city field input and get weather button is there. The user can enter different city name and get weather of it